5) The present request of Rajaseva Saktha mr. B.K. Narayana Rao, Senior Surgeon, is that he may be given a pension of Rs 500/- p.m.

6) An examination of the history of his services shows that mr Narayana Rao would have put in a qualifying service of 25 years and 2 months by the time of his retirement from service with effect from 13th March 1941 and if a deficiency of ten months is condoned under Art. 27.2 of the M.S.R, the total period of his qualifying service, comes to 26 years and he would be entitled to a pension of about Rs 433 1/3 p.m. under the ordinary rules of the M.S.R.

7) To get a pension of Rs 500/- p.m. the rules as they stand at present require

(a) that an officer should belong to the old Civil Service and be included in Appendix A or

(b) that he should have put in a service of 30 years.

But the case of mr Narayana Rao ~~does~~ can not satisfy any of these two conditions.

1) There have been several instances, however, of officers of similar standing and service in many Departments (Chief Engineers, Superintending Engineers, Senior Surgeons, Chief Secretary etc.) being granted a pension of Rs 500/- p.m. as a special case. Even Puisne Judges of the High Court of Mysore are entitled to a maximum limit of pension of Rs 500/- p.m. provided they have put in a not less than 25 years' service and have also served as a Judge of the High Court for not less than 3 years. (Vide Gr. No. No. Je. 9264-87 St-A. 470-30-1 dt 17.6.31)

2) Sastravaidya pravina mr S. Subba Rao, predecessor to mr. Narayana Rao was also given a pension of Rs 500/- p.m. though he had put in a service of only 27 years in view of the fact that he had been the Head of a Department for a long time (i.e. for 9 years) and also in consideration of the fact that similar concession was extended to officers of similar status in the past.

"X"

11) Mr Narayana Rao has been Senior Surgeon from 18.6.38 and at the time of his retirement he would have served as such for about 2 years and 9 months. The net qualifying service including the deficiency of ten months, is 26 years. This may be got verified by the audit office.

12) It is for consideration whether the case of Mr Narayana Rao calls for any special Concession.

13) Submitted

14) In the case of Heads of Major departments, it would only be appropriate to Consider a higher pension than that ordinarily admissible. The medical Deptt is a technical Deptt and for Qualify for entry into that Deptt, a Cand'd has to go through a long and strenuous University Course. Consequently an officer enters the Deptt at a later age than persons recruited to other Deptts and consequently will not be ordinarily able to complete 30 years of service. Some consideration on this score may be deserved, Three officers of the Deptt with a distinguished career have risen to the highest post available to them there viewed thus, I think Dr Narayana Rao's case deserves consideration both because of precedent and the propriety of the case.

18) When the Mysore Civil Service was constituted i the year 1891, the maximum limit of half average emoluments for officers of this service, was fixed at the enhanced limit of Rs. 6,000 per annum for an active service of not less than 30 years (instead of the ordinary maximum limit of Rs. 5,000 per annum provided in the Mysore Service Regulations). In 19 the position was further improved by ordering the grant of this maximum pension for a net qualifying service of not less than 25 years. The privilege granted exclusively to the Civil Service Officers wa resented by officers of other departments, and as Goverr ment found it difficult to justify the special trea ment confined only to the officers of one department in the State's service, and as the extension of the privilege to all officers in the State was considered to be not possible, the special rule was abrogated in the yea 1910, the officers who were then entitled to the privilege being however continued to retain it.

19) 2. Even after the above change in the rule, enhanced pension of Rs. 6,000 per annum had to be sanctioned by Government to certain officers on special grounds, one precedent having ~~created~~ led to anoth The whole question was reviewed by Government in th year 1928, with reference to the corresponding rule in the British Indian Civil Service Regulations and the maximum limit of pension was raised from Rs.5,0 to Rs. 6,000 per annum on a sliding scale with reference to the service, an additional pension of Rs. 200 being allowed for each year of service in excess of 25 years.

3. Subsequently in some cases, Government have sanctioned the higher pension of Rs. 6,000 per annum, in cases where officers had not put in 30 years' qualifying service. The following are some of the officers who were allowed this benefit:-

Name of Officer	Designation	Pay at the time of retirement	Length of qualifying service.
1. Dr.I.C. Coleman	Director of Agriculture	2,500	25
2. Mr.R. Ranga Rao	Chief Secretary	1,400	25
3. Dr.S. Subba Rao	Senior Surgeon	1,400	26

4. Recently, Government have ordered that Mr. Iswaran, Trade Commissioner in Mysore, might be allowed the enhanced pension of Rs. 6,000 per annum, though he was rendered a qualifying service of only 25 years.

Dr. B.V. Narayana Rao, Senior Surgeon, who is to retire shortly has also requested the grant of a higher pension of Rs. 6,000 per annum, though he has rendered only 26 years' qualifying service. and the request is supported by the precedents for inside the rules

5. It is generally desirable to strictly follow rules laid down by Government and if by experience gained it is found necessary to change the rules, the latter is to be considered, instead of permitting deviations in individual cases, each one becoming a precedent for the other. On a reference to the cases where a higher pension of Rs. 6,000 per annum was specially allowed by Government in the past, it seems that the special concession was allowed on the ground that the officers concerned had held the posts of Heads of Departments for a fairly long period. So far back as 1923, the then Financial Secretary, Sir M.N. Krishna Rao, suggested that officers who were heads of departments and were in receipt of a pay of not less than Rs. 1,400 might be allowed the higher pension of Rs. 6,000 per annum. A similar suggestion was made by Mr. B. Sreenivasa Iyengar also in the year 1927. In British India, larger pension is being allowed to officers holding certain specified posts (vide Article 475 A, Civil Service Regulations and para 282 of the Bombay Civil Service Rules).

6. In June 1931, it was laid down by Government that the maximum limit of pension will be Rs. 6,000 per annum, in the case of officers who have rendered a qualifying service of not less than 25 years and wh have also been Judges of the High Court for not less than three years.

It is for consideration whether the same conces- sion may not be extended to officers who have held the posts of heads of departments (the minimum pay of which is not less than Rs. 1,000), for not less than three years.

Under present conditions, it may not be possibl for Heads of Departments to put in 30 years' qualify ing service always, since the maximum age for first appointment has been raised from 25 to 28 years in certain cases (vide Article 36, M.S.R.).

7. This is an important question of principle and may be considered at a meeting of the Council.

Subject:— Proposal to sanction a special pension of Rs 500/- per mensem to Rajasevasaktha Mr. B. K. Narayana Rao, Retired Senior Surgeon.

Rajasevasakta Mr. B. K. Narayana Rao, Senior Surgeon, was permitted to retire from service from the 13th March 1941. Mr. Narayana Rao has rendered approved service of 25 years and 2 months for which he is entitled to a pension of Rs 416-11-0, but he requests that he may be given the maximum pension of Rs 500/- as was done in the case of Dr. S. Subba Rao, Retired Senior Surgeon, as a special case, taking into consideration his foreign qualifications and his loyal service to the State.

2) The Financial Secretary is of opinion that in the case of Officers who have rendered a qualifying service of not less than 25 years and who have been Judges of the High Court for not less than three years, the maximum limit of pension is fixed at Rs 6,000/- per annum and that the question of extending the privilege to the cases of Officers, who have held the posts of heads of departments on a pay of not less than Rs. 1,000/- for a minimum period of three years may be considered.

3) The subject was considered at a meeting of the Council held on the 8th April 1941 when it was resolved that the proposal to sanction a pension of Rs 500/- to Mr. B. K. Narayana Rao may be approved.

4 It was considered that the general question raised by the Financial Secretary may be dealt with separately.

S&H 465-40-1

DEAR Sir,

Having been permitted to retire from 12.3.'41, I wish to place the following for the kind consideration of the Government in fixing the amount of pension to be awarded.

I shall have put in a service of 25 years and 2 months and be, according to rules, eligible for a pension of Rs416. I request that a full pension of Rs500 as for 30 years service be kindly granted on the following considerations which, I hope, will be regarded as justifying the grace.

I. No officer of the Medical Department with good academic degrees (Indian and Foreign) can ordinarily enter service earlier than 29 or 30 years of age and so can never become eligible for this full pension. I finished all my foreign studies at my own expense before entering service here and had put in 3½ years of well commended service in British India. So I was nearly 32 years old at entry.

2. The regular average additional income of Rs1100 per month from insurance work obtaining when I was appointed as Senior Surgeon was in a few months reduced to a mere Rs250. As the modified order was in public interests I felt it improper to bring to notice the personal hardship that was occasioned. Further, I was the first Senior Surgeon to whom the reduced pay of Rs 1200 (from Rs1400) was applied. The unintended irony of circumstances can be appreciated by the facts that promotion to Senior Surgeoncy meant in my case an increase of salary by only Rs50 (from Rs 1150 to Rs 1200) and that for varying periods even some years earlier I had drawn salaries of Rs 1200 and even Rs 1250. This reduction had its reaction on the rate of T.A also.

In the opportunities for useful service that were offered to me during my career - for which I am truly grateful - I have uniformly endeavoured to do my level best and I hope with some appreciable success.
